SCULPTURES THAT CELEBRATE LOVE

Collectors of Jay M. Rotberg's work will be delighted with this year's collection. We continue to offer your favorites in bonded resins, as well as our successful sculptures in metal. New this year is a collection of sculptures dedicated to the loving bond between you and your pet.

Most of JMR's metal images are larger than the resin pieces but will be available at attractive price points for both buyers and sellers.

Get swept up in Jay Rotberg's popular Simply Love collection. With simplicity and quiet dignity, Rotberg's creations capture comfort in a hug, depict abandon and joy, convey compassion and understanding, and inspire strength and hope.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Jay Rotberg's work has found its way into shops, galleries, personal collections, and museums around the country. His art reflects his beliefs, interests, and loves—the closeness of family, the power of faith, and the unpredictable and delightful itineraries of relationships.

NOTE

- ◆ Bonded Resin Sculptures: Crafted using bonded marble and wood resins and finished in a bronze verdigris patina.
- ◆ Metal Sculptures: Made of zinc with a pewter finish.
- ◆ From Generation to Generation is designed to be a memorial candleholder as well as a sculpture. It is available in metal only. Candle is sold separately.

SIMPLY IN LOVE WITH OUR PETS

Our sculptures convey in Jay Rotberg's signature style the relationship between you and your pet: the closeness, the warmth, the bonding, and the delightful fun of your relationship.

While we appreciate your attachment to a particular breed, we have designed these sculptures as generic dogs and cats to represent a universal passion for pets as well as a love for your special pet.

PET SYMBOL

Each sculpture has a special symbol depicted by an infinity sign representing the bond between you and your pet.
